In July 2004 Michael K. Frommelt, CFA, founded Aristo Investment Management AG in Vaduz/Liechtenstein as chairman and managing partner.

Prior to starting his own business, Michael has been involved in setting up Bank Wegelin (Liechtenstein) AG in Vaduz as a managing director since 1998, otherwise known as swissfirst Bank (Liechtenstein) AG (name changed in July 2001). He was also a member of the commission to amend the Liechtenstein law on investment undertakings (IUG) from 2002 until 2004. His previous assignments comprised as short stay as a consultant at Zulauf Asset Management in Zug in 1998 and Vontobel Asset Management in Zurich as a manager of mutual funds and portfolios of institutional and high-networth-individuals from 1994 until 1998. He started his career at UBS in 1986 mainly as a mutual fund and asset manager but also on various early assignments at UBS (Securities) in London and UBS London. Michael took his CFA charter in 1994.

ARISTO is dedicated to offer both private and institutional investors support and expertise for all forms of investment management. True to the name ARISTO, Aristos is Greek and means "best", the company is committed to finding tailor-made solutions to satisfy individual investment needs whilst not losing sight to the true goal: choosing the best path to success. ARISTO is already positioned to meet the new requirements of the forthcoming EU/EEC-compatible investment company law in Liechtenstein which is due to be passed in the course of 2005. ARISTO's offices are situated at Herrengasse 2 right at the center of Vaduz.
